RESTAURANT | CAFÉ-BAR | HOLISTIC TREATMENTS

'Every time you stay, we hope it will feel luxurious and special but with that relaxed atmosphere of a home from home.'

A photograph of an outdoor terrace. In the foreground, there is a white, ornate, classical-style table with a white pitcher and two glasses on it. Next to it is a black metal table with two black metal chairs. A dark purple patio umbrella stands behind the table. The terrace overlooks a lush green valley with rolling hills and a power line tower in the distance under a blue sky with light clouds.

Welcome to the Fernhill Hotel

This our Dorset haven, nestled between the beautiful coastal village of Charmouth and the historic town of Lyme Regis. In an elevated position on Fern Hill, we are surrounded by stunning views across the Char Valley with the Jurassic coastline and the sea beyond.

We have fallen in love with this place and we hope you will too. With 36 acres of land, including woods, ornamental grounds, fishing lakes and an outdoor swimming pool, it is a fantastic spot to unwind. Conveniently located, just off the A35, it is a perfect base for exploring this spectacular county.

We have a stylish restaurant, which is enjoying a growing reputation, and there is plenty to do for all ages throughout the Summer and Winter. There is a well established golf course next door, crazy golf on site, our pool and the Café Bar and Snug for when you want to settle in front of a roaring fire. Our Holistic Treatment Centre is also available for those who wish to be totally pampered.

Our friendly staff are here to make your stay as personal and enjoyable as possible, so if you have a special request, such as a dietary requirement, or need help planning your stay or event, please ask.

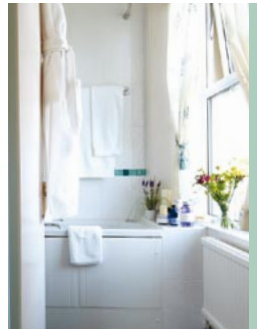

Whether you stay for a weekend or 3 weeks, we hope that, when you leave, you feel rested and relaxed.

The Restaurant

The Restaurant

Our chef has been creating amazing food for years and is as passionate as we are about using the freshest local ingredients. We buy local and seasonal first, organic second and fair-trade wherever possible. The result is a restaurant with a growing reputation, both amongst our guests, locals in the know and those who travel some distance just to eat with us.

The restaurant has a sophisticated feel, mixing a sense of grandeur with one of relaxed intimacy. It is perfect for wedding receptions, parties and events but is also a beautiful setting for a romantic, candlelit dinner.

Enjoy outstanding food that has been lovingly prepared

We like to treat every guest as an individual, so if you have a special dietary requirement for yourself or one of your party, please let us know when booking. Our chef can then devise something extra special to suit.

How to find us

We are located on the A3052 just off the A35 signposted to Lyme Regis. When following the A35 west-bound you will first see signs for Charmouth which you do not need to take. Whilst a detour through this coastal village is pleasurable it is faster to ignore these signs, and follow the A3052 to Lyme Regis, we are just off the roundabout on this road.
